HOUSE PARTIES PROMISE GAY, COLORFUL WEEK-END

Varied Program Arranged for Hamilton's Springtime Guests

DISTANCE NO DETERRENT

Girls From Wisconsin, Colorado and Florida Coming for Festivities

Many events crowd the program as house party once more plunges the Hill into a gay and colorful week-end. Parties in all but one of the fraternity houses attract the country's fairest and farthest—not only from Clinton and Utica, but even from Wisconsin, Colorado, and Florida.

Festivities start on Friday night with banquets at the ten houses, followed by open-house dances until morning.

A track meet with St. Lawrence and a tennis match against Albany will help entertain the guests on Saturday, with D. T. and Was Los tea dances at the Theta Delt and Alpha Delt houses, respectively, following later in the afternoon. The usual house party number of the "Royal Gaboon" will be on sale at the track meet.

The Saturday night dances at each house will be closed, as is customary. For those who are ambitious enough to attend chapel early Sunday morning, Principal Lewis Perry, LL. D., of the Phillips-Exeter Academy will give the address. For early arrivals, the baseball and tennis teams will perform Friday afternoon.

The guests of each house are as follows:

MANY ATTRACTIONS IN COMING GABBOON

J. W. Moore, Isssue Editor, Promises Many Features

As the last issue under the old regime, the 30-page House Party issue of the Rayol Gaboon promises to be especially interesting and entertaining. The board is doing its best to make it a success. Editor Ingalls and J. W. Moore editor of this issue, told a Hamilton Life reporter that this is to be the best and largest number of the Gaboon since its establishment.

A multi-colored cover furnishes the main attraction of the Gaboon. Another feature is Symonds' double-page drawing of the Hamilton College Campus, including campus, buildings, professors and other points of interest. There are to be an unusual number of cartoons and features, including five full-page drawings. One feature mentioned by Editor Ingalls is a take-off on "The Girl That Jack Brought."

The House Party issue of the Gaboon will terminate the competition among the junior members of the board for next year's editorship. Those competing are Frederick Davis, Robert Sewell, Robert Webster and James Moore.

EDWARD S. NORTH OF COLLEGE HILL DIES

Elderly Clinton Resident Well-Liked In Community

Edward S. North, son of Professor North died last Thursday at the age of 79. His health had been failing for some time, but was in a critical condition for only a few days. He had lived a secluded life in the old North residence below President Ferry's ever since his parents died. His uncle, Dr. Simon North, was president of Hamilton from 1839 to 1857. The funeral took place Saturday. He is survived by a sister, four nieces and three nephews.

"His family and the Root's did a great deal for the college, and they kept it together when things looked bad," according to William Wallace, assistant superintendent of grounds. Mr. North was liked by all the children round about, to whom he used to tell stories. He owned a good deal of land near the college. Some years ago he sold to the college the land on which the Theta Delta Chi House now stands, together with that behind the Sigma Phi Place.

President Frederick C. Ferry had nothing but praise for Mr. North. He characterized him as a kindly, sympathetic person, the best kind of a neighbor and the best kind of a friend.

H

Herbert J. Worboys, '28, who is teaching physical geography and biology in Honeoye Falls High School this year, is to be principal next year.

No 1929 Prize Play; Manuscripts Unworthy

In spite of the large number of manuscripts submitted for the Alexander Woollcott prize play, the standard has not been sufficiently high to allow the award. As a result no winner will be declared, according to announcement yesterday by Prof. Paul A. Fancher.

No date has as yet been arranged for the presentation of the two plays selected this spring by the class in Dramatic Interpretation, under the direction of Professor Fancher. It is expected that the date, which will be within three weeks, will be announced shortly.

The plays chosen this year are: "The Gods of the Mountain," by Lord Dunsany, and "Brothers in Arms," by M. Denison.

LIT. BOARD EDITS ITS FINAL ISSUE

New Staff Will Edit June Issue; Coming Number Is Fourth Appearance Of Lit.

When the Hamilton Literary Magazine makes its appearance next week it will mark the end of the present regime. The new editorial force will edit the last issue of the college year, which will appear in June. The coming issue is to be featured by a one-act play, "Bones," by Z. L. MacMillan, '29. The scene of this play is laid in a cave near Jerusalem during the British occupation of Palestine.

"Intelligentsia," a satire in dialogue, by Robert W. Cruser, '31, is another feature of the issue. There is also an essay by Francis E. Mineka, '29, entitled, "Tabloid Journalism," which won the Cobb Essay Prize last year. "My Daughter Says—," a short story by Franklin Deaner, '31; an oration on "International Education," by Frederick Eddy, '29, and a translation from "Sappho," by Samuel A. Ives, '30, are among the other articles worthy of note.

This issue of the "Lit" will indulge rather deeply in poetry. Sonnets by Robert W. Cruser, '31; Philip V. Rogers, '30; Dean H. Elliot, ex-'29, and Edward L. Stevens, '30, are included in this department. The sonnet by Edward Stevens in a translation from the French work of Arthur Rimbaud.

Besides these, there will be the usual review of the current theatrical season by L. V. Almirall, '29, and the usual alumni section. This issue will also give a complete index of the four issues of the past year.

D. T. NEOPHYTES COMMENCE ORDEALS

Sophomore Honorary Society Pledges Customary Thirteen

Tapping by the sophomore members of the D. T. Club Thursday morning has once again brought honor to 13 members of the freshman class. The neophytes appeared in front of the chapel on Friday morning attired in the traditional baby bonnet and fully equipped with carts, apples, cigarets and other sundries to begin their period of intensive initiation, and to furnish amusement to the rest of the college body.

The more obvious elements of the initiation are now in full swing and will continue until after house party, May 10 and 11. The annual presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" will again be given on the chapel steps the Saturday noon of house party.

These men selected: Walter H. Pritchard, John O. Ready, Harry W. Porter, Robert G. Phelps, Benjamin J. Stone, Arden L. Skinner, N. Morey Eames, John S. Dixon, Charles S. Estabrook, Jr., Clifford A. Lewis, Waterman Baldwin, Alfred L. Fauver and J. Maynard Jones. At a meeting of the newly tapped men following their selection, Benjamin Stone was elected president.

H

John L. Strickland, ex-'30, pitching the first game of the season for St. Lawrence University, turned in a 5-1 win over Middlebury. Besides fanning 10 batters, he held the team to five scattered hits and accounted for one of the winning tallies.

Strickland was a member of the St Lawrence hockey team that appeared here last winter against Hamilton.

HILL BALL TEAM WINS AND LOSES ON TRIP SOUTH

Vanguishes Susquehanna, 2-1, And Bows to Haverfordians by Similar Score

BOTH PITCHING DUELS

Chatfield and Calkins Feature In Severe Tests

In two closely contested games during the past week-end, the Hamilton College baseball team defeated Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove, Pa., last Friday, 2-1, but was repulsed by Haverford at Haverford by the same score. Both of these contests developed into pitching duels.

Although pitching his second game of the season, in weather more appropriate for football than for baseball, Calkins, Hamilton pitcher, displayed mid-season form against the Susquehanna University men, limiting them to four hits and only two bases on balls.

Chatfield scored both of his team's runs. In the first inning after reaching first on an error, he stole second, made third on a fielder's choice, and then stole home. Chatfield's second run came in the sixth inning when he singled to left field. He then stole second again and crossed the plate when the opposing third baseman made an error on Eggleston's grounder. Susquehanna scored their lone run in the fifth inning, as the result of two hits and a sacrifice.

Chatfield Stars

Chatfield, pitching throughout the Haverford game, let the powerful Haverford batters down with five scattered hits and issued only three passes. Haverford earned only one of their two runs as the first was made on errors. The real star of the game, however, was H. Supplee, Haverford pitcher, and one of the best small-college twirlers in the East, who struck out 17 Hamiltonians and gave only two scattered hits.

All the scoring in this contest was done in the first two innings. Hamilton earned its only run of the game in the initial frame when Supplee forced Morris, first man to the plate, to ground out and then fanned M. Stevens. Knox, however, reached first on a walk, and stole second. Chatfield then scored Knox with a long double to centerfield. Rozell

CHOIR RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM

Final Road Concert Enjoyed by Many in Syracuse

The Hamilton College Choir gave its last concert off the Hill Monday night to an appreciative audience in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Syracuse. This recital was the third appearance of a Hamilton musical organization in that city.

The numbers rendered were the same as those used in the choir's concert in the Guild Theater, New York, recently. The two selections accorded the most enthusiastic reception were "The Crucifixion Aria'" a Negro Spiritual, with a baritone solo sung by Henry Heyl, '28, accompanied by a choral obligato, and "Hospodi Pomilui," the ever-popular Russian Litany.

Interesting numbers included "Plorate, Filii Israel," a motet written in the seventeenth century by Giacomo Carissimi; "Lobe Den Herren," an old German chorale by an unknown composer, and "The Crusaders' Hymn," with a solo part by Mr. Heyl.

H

Besides Principal E. S. Babcock, there are now five Hamilton men on the staff of the U. F. A., namely: R. R. Perkins, '19; W. A. Wettel, '21, and K. J. Watkins, '25, in science; R. J. Ralph, '25, history; O. A. Roberts, '25, in English, and Rocco A. Lopardo, '21, mathematics.

BUFF AND BLUE TRACKMEN LOSE TO ALFRED TEAM

Hamilton Places in Every Event and Makes Clean Sweep in Sensational 220

WEAK IN FIELD EVENTS

Relay Team Loses After Fine Start

An alarming weakness in the distance and field events caused the Hamilton track team to lose to Alfred by a score of 86-45 in its debut on Steuben Field Saturday.

Hamilton placed in every event, and captured first, second and third places in a sensational 220 dash.

High scoring honors of the day went to Fredericks of Alfred, who accounted for 18 points by taking three first places—the high jump, the high hurdles and the broad jump—and by taking a second in the low hurdles. Ford showed his usual fine form to take three first places for the Buff and Blue team, in the 100 and 220 dashes and in the low hurdles.

Captain DeSormo, although entered in five events, failed to come up to his usual standards and placed second in the shot and javelin. Palmer Cutter, last year's captain, suffered an injury in the high hurdles and was unable to participate further in the meet, although he took second place in the discus throw.

In the relay, the four Hamilton men showed promise of being a potential quartet when, for three quarters of the race, they held a lead 15 yards that Frazee had gained in the first quarter. Getz of Alfred, who triumphed over the best runners in the East recently in the Penn relay obstacle race, established the only record of the day by lowering the Hamilton College mile record by 1 seconds, thus making it in 4:31. The summary:

Track

100-Yard Dash—Won by Ford, H.; second, Steele, A.; third, Dutcher, H. Time 10:03.

220-Yard Dash — Ford, H., first; Frazee, H., second; Dutcher, H., third. Time 23:04.

440-Yard Run — Won by Steele, A.; Lathrop H., second; Zcheigner, Alfred, third. Time 52:04.

880-Yard Run—Won by Boulton, A.; Zcheichner, A., second; Grubb, H., third. Time 2:02.

Low Hurdles—Won by Ford, H.; Fredericks, A.; Van Loon, H. third. Time 26:02.

High Hurdles—Won by Fredericks, A.; Hulse, A.; Van Loon, H. Time 17:04.

Mile Run—Won by Getz, A.; Boulton, A., second; Clark, H., third. Time 4:31.

Two-Mile Run—Getz, A.; Boulton, A., second; Clark, H., third. Time 10:05.

GOLF TEAM FAILS IN UNION MATCH

Drops Opening Contest to Garnet by 6-0 Score

Failing to score a victory in either the twosome or the foursome matches, the Hamilton golf team suffered a 6-0 defeat at the hands of the Union golfers last Thursday. The contest was held on the Mohawk Golf course in Schenectady, and consisted of four twosomes and two foursomes.

The tennis match with Union, scheduled for Friday, was rained out.

Golf results:

J. Beale defeated Bannerman, 4 and 2.

R. Beale defeated Mead, 3 and 2.

Beale and Beale defeated Bannerman and Mead, 4 and 3.

Mascotti defeated Ingalls, 3 and 1.

Zierner defeated Miller, 5 and 3.

Masotti and Zierer defeated Ingalls and Miller, 5 and 3.

HAMILTON AND R. P. I. TO FIGHT FOR TRACK HONORS

Visitors Well Prepared; Strong In Dashes and Field Events

With several new sprint men to strengthen its weak point, the R. P. I. track team will provide plenty of opposition for Hamilton. A wealth of material has provided the visitors with a new man in each of the track events.

Captain Malley, Bishop and Travis will handle the dashes. Because of his work on the indoor track this winter, Travis is expected to break Rensselaer's long standing record of 10 second in the century. Warren, who holds the record for the quarter, will also be available for the sprints if necessary.

The Engineers have been further strengthened by the return of Gianetti to the cinder path . Gianetti, who was ineligible last year, recently smashed the R. P. I. indoor records for the mile and the two-mile. His time for the latter is better than the present outdoor mark. The weight squad that overwhelmed the Buff and Blue in the field events last year, is still intact.

RENOVATION OF SILLIMAN HALL PROMISED BY TRUSTEES

Elihu Root, '64, Greeted On Return From Abroad

Elihu Root, '64, Hamilton's most distinguished alumnus, presided at the meeting of the Board of Trustees Saturday morning.

Preceding the meeting, he attended the regular chapel services, in company with President Frederick C. Ferry and members of the board. As he left the chapel he was greeted by a tremendous ovation from the students, who cheered the former Secretary of State with the same vigor with which they customarily greet football heroes.

Following the meeting, Mr. Root made a tour of the campus, in company with Reuben L. Maynard, '84 and President Ferry. This group, together with Charles A. Miller, comprises the Buildings and Grounds Committee, which has charge of the renovation of Silliman Hall.

Mr. Root expects to spend his summer vacation on the Hill, starting June 1.

FACULTY LOSES FIVE MEMBERS

Professor Bonham Granted Year's Sabbatical Leave — Younger Instructors to Study

Composition of the faculty will be materially altered next year when five instructors leave for work in other felds, and Professor Bonham enters upon his sabbatcal year. Mr. Crist, Mr. Chretien, Mr. Daymont, Mr. Sleight and Mr. Heyl are the five instructors whose plans take them away from the Hill.

Professor Bonham plans to devote his sabbatical year to further study of Canadian history, both in Canada and abroad. He intends to devote the summer to research in the Canadian archives at Ottawa, Canada. In the fall he plans to sail for England with his famly, makng his headquarters in London, and conducting historical research in the archives of the University of London. Here his interest will be concerned with the English background of Canadian history.

In mid-winter, Professor Bonham intends to continue his study at Paris, carrying on research in the French archives to obtain the French background of Canadian history. If occasion allows, he may take courses at Oxford and at the University of Paris.

Mr. Crist plans to do graduate work at the Princeton Graduate School devoting himself to a study of the French and Italian languages. Mr. Chretien goes to Harvard to carry on graduate work in English literature, while Mr. Heyl goes to study in the Harvard Medical School. Mr. Sleight intends to teach geology at Northwestern University, at the same time doing graduate work there. Mr. Daymont has not yet definitely formulated his plans, but looks forward to business.

Professor Graves will serve as acting head of the History Department during Professor Bonham's leave of absence.

LOSS OF CUTTER AND DUTCHER WEAKENS BUFF AND BLUE

The Hamilton track team ran into more hard luck this week. As the result of an injury suffered in the initial track meet, Cutter, former captain and star hurdler, will probably be kept out for the remainder of the season. Dutcher, leading candidate for the relay and dashes, is ill with mumps and will be unable to practice or participate for more than a week. The loss of these two men cripples Hamilton in what was considered to be its strongest events.

The withdrawal of Crane and Corwin from the squad has likewise contributed to an alarming weakness. Practicall y the only two men left on the team that are certain point-getters are Captain DeSormo and Ford.

Lathrop and George Clark are in line for possible middle or long distance honors, but there is no certainty that they will be able to capture their events . Frazee is favored as second man to Ford in the dashes and VanLoon as a possible point-getter in the hurdles.

H

W. Elliott Wormuth, '28, was on the Hill over the week-end.

RENOVATION OF SILLIMAN HALL PROMISED BY TRUSTEES

Union Building Part of Plan For Restoration of Former Y. M. C. A.

MANY GIFTS ANNOUNCED

Total of $60,000 Is Added to Hamilton College Building Fund

Complete renovation of Silliman Hall, formerly the home of the Hamilton College Y. M. C. A., to provide undergraduate offices, added facilities for the music department and a Union Building, will be forthcoming as the result of a meeting of the Board of Trustees in the Administration Building Saturday morning.

Plans for Silliman, which will be perfected in time for the opening of college in the fall, provide that the lower floor shall be entirely given over to Professor Berrian Rankin Shute for the use of the Department of Music. This will include a Record Library, considered to be one of the first of its kind in America; class rooms, and a hall for recitals. One room on the second floor will be used for a piano practice room. The other rooms on the second floor will be given over to a Union Building. This will include two large parlors for the use of undergraduates at all times and three offices for undergraduate organizations, presumably publications.

Arrangements will be made so that the parlors may be used as a place for entertainment by those having guests on the Hill. It is planned to employ a woman who will keep the rooms in order and available for women guests.

Acts on Public Speaking

The question of revising the public speaking requirements was reported to the board and the decision of the student-faculty committee and of the faculty as a whole was upheld.

The board likewise announced the appointment of seven new men to the faculty, the election of James A. Chrestenson, '99, Franklinville, to the board and the acceptance of gifts totaling $60,000, to be added to the building fund. The donors are Dr. Charles B. Rogers, $25,000; Dr. Alexander C. Soper, $25,000, and Daniel Burke, $10,000.

The Board approved the faculty recommendation of Edwin Church Douglas for the Root Fellowship, which will enable him to do graduate work in Harvard. Grants in aid were likewise voted Edgar B. Graves associate professor, that he may continue his researches in English archives this summer, and Earl O. Butcher, assistant professor, that he may carry on his studies this summer at the Woods Hole Marine Biological Laboratories. Mr. Graves was previously awarded a $300 grant in aid by the American Council of Learned Societies for the same purpose.

Professor Milledge L. Bonham, Jr., was voted a year's leave of absence, and Instructors Charles Douglas Chretien, Peter Bentley Daymont Jr., Clifford Mortimer Crist, Virgil George Sleight and Henry L. Heyl were released in order that they may

SHEEPSKINS AND PIGSKINS

In little more than a month the class of 1929 will become Hamilton's one hundred and seventeenth contribution to the society of educated men. Although the class numbers less than 80 men, as many fields of work are represented in the plans of that group as in those of many classes two and three times its size. Half of the seniors plan to do graduate work, and half will enter some field of business at once. While the percentage of men entering graduat schools is considerably higher than the average, the situation here at Hamilton is pretty much the same as in hundreds of other colleges and universities scattered throughout the country.

Hamilton with a total enrollment of slightly over 400, has a faculty of 44 men including coaches and part-time instructors. In four years that small group of men must bring some kind of order out of heterogeneous collection of freshmen from a hundred different preparatory schools, instill into them a sufficient degree of knowledge in accordance with Hamilton principles, and prepare them for a future as heterogeneous as their past. No small task, that, for 44 human beings.

In general, that is the professor's handicap and the professor's task, in Hamilton as in every other American college. It is also the answer to the ever-recurrent student complaint of too great restriction in choice of studies, of too great emphasis on quizzes and examinations, of too great observance of custom and tradition. It is an American situation, and must be treated in an American way.

A favorite subject for undergraduate editors is a comparison of American methods of education with English methods, of French methods, or German methods. The Oxford system, for instance, has been applied to Hamilton by more than one Life editor, and the results of such an adoption shown to be nothing but beneficial. The great flaw in such proposals lies in the fundamental differences in personnel between Americanand European student bodies. Considerably more than half the graduates of American colleges elect business in preference to a profession. The future business man in a European university is a rarity. A method of education canont be applied as a method which must meet the two-fold need of the professional and business man.

His needs and previous training are sufficient handicaps to his college in themselves. Add to that the average undergraduate's attitude toward education and the difficulties double. The fact that many students come to college with no definite idea of what they want, and are not in search of learning for its own sake, has necessitated an entirely different system of education from that now in vogue in foreign universities. Where the student has no vocational or intellectual interest in his education, artificial interest must be created. Daily recitations, frequent tests and quizzes, semester examinations, compulsory attendance at classes, and a standardized system of marks have been instituted to supply the deficiency, with a resulting protest from those who feel that they do not need such goads to the acquisition of an education.

Partly as the result of such a system, and partly as the result of the large percentage of future "men of affairs" in the student body, the great institution of extra-curricular activities has been established by the students themselves, and bids fair to crowd class-room interest off the campus entirely. This elaborate miniature world within the walls of the college is essentially American and no adequate counterpart can be found abroad. Extra-curricular activities are not marked by a spirit of play, but by a spirit of success. Started, presumably, as recreation, they have become the really serious business of undergraduate life, and failure to participate means social ostracism.

If the real purpose of a college is the dissemination of knowledge and the spread of culture, isn't the undergraduate emphasis on "student life" a little too great? It is argued that the experience gained as managers, captains, editors, etc., fits American students to cope with a world of affairs far better than those trained in foreign colleges. But the training resulting from experience gained in a miniature world within the college can be obtained equally as well in actual experence after graduation; the successful development and expansion of the mind at a time when it is fully receptive cannot be so achieved.

Whichever method is the more effective is still to be determined. What should be clearly seen and understood is that there are two distinct methods, the inevitable result of differences in student needs, previous training and attitude. Under present conditions, the two systems cannot be confused or united. Any such attempt, without proper preparation, would be not only impracticable, but unsafe.

To Improve Griffin Road

The Board approved a set of rules to govern all future investments replace somewhat similar rules recently repealed by the State Legislature,; appointed a committee, of which Elihu Root is chairman, to consider pension increases, as provided by the Carnegie Institute, and voted the improvement of Griffin Road.

The thanks of the board were extended to Mrs. Edward W. Root for metal name plates to be affixed to the pictures in the trustee rooms; to several granite companies, for recent contributions to the geology department, and to H. R. Williams, vice president of the First National Bank Utica, for the presentation of the H. A. Williams Collection of 1,00 minerals and fossils . The elder Mr Williams was a member of the Cla of '39.

Edwin C. Baker, '94; Curtis Miller, Jr., '99; and Frederick J. Meagher, '99, were appointed inspectors of election for the selection of an alumni trustee in June. Paul R. Abbott, '04; Clermonte G. Tennant, '04, and Arthur S. Evans, '09, are alternates. Miller, Franklin & Bassett, a Utica firm, were selected as auditors for the college accounts.

All members of the board were present with the exception of Henry H. Benedict, '69; William M. Bristol, '82; Rev. Robert G. McGregor, D. D. '97; Clark H. Minor, '02, and Ernst O. Heyl, '99, who were excused.

New History Associate

The appointments to the faculty: George Loveland Ridgeway, B. Litt (Oxon.), as associate professor of American history. Mr. Ridgeway attended Wesleyan University for the year 1919-20 and transferred to Princeton so that his last three years were completed there with the degree of bachelor of arts in 1923. He was an instructor in history in the Lake Placid School in 1923-24 and in the Riverdale Country School, 1924-26. Next he entered Queens College, Oxford, and received the degree of B. Litt. in 1928. For the academic year 1928-29 he accepted the position o assistant professor of history and acting head of the history department in Colby College. From this position he was obliged to drop out in December, by reason of a serious attack of influenza, from which he has now entirely recovered.

Lewis Hall Gordon, A. M. (Princeton), as assistant professor of romance languages. Mr. Gordon was graduated from Princeton in 1927, with the degree of bachelor of arts, and gained the degree of master o arts in 1928. He is still engaged in graduate study at Princeton.

Smith, '22, Chosen

Francis Winfield Smith, A. B. (Hamilton), as assistant professor of English. Mr. Smith was graduated from Hamilton College in 1922 a valedictorian of his class with the degree of bachelor of arts and Phi Beta Kappa membership. He won the Kellogg Essay Prize in 1920, the Duell German Scholarship in 1921, and the Warfield Prize in German in 1922. He served as instructor in English in the University of Rochester, 1922-23, and in the summer school there in 1923; as part-time instructor in English, in the University Extension of Columbia University, 1923-24, and in Columbia College, 1924-25; as instructor in English, University Extension of Columbia, 1925-27. At the same time he has carried on graduate study and had three stories published, one o which was reprinted by the Columbia Writers' Club.

Donovan Rice Meredith, as instructor in geology. Mr. Meredith is a member of the class of 1929 i the University of Toronto, majoring in geology and mineralogy in the honor science course and candidating for the B. A. degree. He entered the University of Toronto in 1924. During the year 1927-28, he worked as inspector for the Durant Motors in Canada.

Mineka and Tolles Listed

Francis Edward Mineka, as instructor in English. Mr. Mineka is a member of the class of 1929 in Hamilton College. He won the Kellogg Essay Prize in his sophomore year and the Cobb Essay Prize and first McKinney Declamation Prize in his junior year. He has now been chosen as one of the Clark Prize orators and as the Head Prize orator for the commencement period of this year.

Winton Tolles, A. B. (Hamilton), an instructor in public speaking. Mr. Tolles was graduated from Hamilton College in 1928 with the degree of bachelor of arts. He won the Cobb Essay Prize in 1927, the Head Oration Prize in 1928, and the second prize in the Clark Prize competition in 1928. Since graduation, he has been teaching English and public speaking in the Brewster High School at Brewster, N. Y., with extra-curricular work in dramatics and debating.

Frederick Carl Riedel, '24, and Frederic S. Marquardt, '27, are giving indications of distinguishing themselves in the literary field in the near future. An article by Mr. Riedel, which is a new interpretation o Chaucer's "House of Fame," was cently printed in the "Journal of English and Germanic Philology"; while an article by Mr. Marquardt entitled "Shakespeare and American Slang," recently appeared in "American Speech."

ANNOUNCING A
$3,000.00
COLLEGE NOVEL
CONTEST
sponsored by
COLLEGE HUMOR
DOUBLEDAY DORAN

There is no more provocative field of life in America today than the college. College men and women are sifting, experimenting, and thinking more boldly than any other group. They are building the new America.

The Campus Prize Novel Contest is open to all college undergraduates, or to graduates of not more than one year. The prize novel may be a story of college life, or of college people in other environments; it may be your personal story or the novel you always have wanted to write about your generation. A $3000.00 Cash prize will be paid the winning author.

The winning novel will be serialized in College Humor and published in book form by Doubleday, Doran and Company. Book royalties will be paid the author in addition to the prize, and motion picture and dramatic rights will remain with the author. We reserve the right to publish in serial and book form, according to the usual terms, any of the other novels submitted. The closing date of the contest is midnight, October 15, 1929.

The contest will be judged by the editors of College Humor and Doubleday Doran. Typed manuscripts of from 75,000 to 100,000 words should be sent with return postage, name, and address, to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, College Humor, 1050 La Salle Street, Chicago; or to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, Doubleday, Doran and Co., Inc., Garden City, N.Y.

CARPE NOCTEM

ANENT AN APPROACHING EVENT

Carpe Noctem, seize the night,
For at five it's nearly light;
Gyrate ginly through the dance,
Sober calm does not enhance,
Party's pleasures not its joys—
Carpe Noctem, girls and boys.

CARPE GETS RARE MANUSCRIPT

EVEN BETTER THAN INCUNABULA, SAYS BIBS

Carpe, through the generosity of an undergraduate who prefers to remain anonymous, but whom we suspect to be none other than J. Selwyn (Field and Stream) Ibbotson, the notorious somnambulant tree lover, is able to present his culture-craving rare-document fans with a fac-simile of one of the finest and funniest whosis-whosises ever caught in this vicinity. In fact, Dr. Nelsonrox Dale, after thoroughly examining it, pronounced it to be a classic example. Ladies and gentlemens, immediately below this sentence you see the fac-simile of the most complete set of classroom notes ever taken by any Hamilton man on Saturday morning of houseparty week. Observe it closely. (If you can't translate it, ask somebody who has enjoyed the benefits of Herm Laves' Sophomore Social Hour to help you with it).

SOCIAL NOTES

The gallant figure and sprightly shrubbery of Col. Milledge L. Bonham, local stockholder in "Hearts in Dixie," was missing at Steuben Field last Saturday when the racing season opened. In bygone years, the Colonel has often been prominent as chief timer on these gala occasions. It is not known whether his absence was due to the inclement weather or to the loss of his fun-loving sense of humor and his walking stick. We sincerely hope that it was both of the latter.

Now that the season is in full swing, many Hamiltonians are rushing away from the local watering places as fast as they can. The south entrance of North seems to be the most feared spa.

The Society Department of Carpe Diem has recently received the intelligence from one of its valued correspondents that Mr. Charles O. (Chuckle-Chuckle) Frazee, erstwhile Easthampton 'Eller, has definitely and decidedly retired from the up-state social whirl. In fact, it is rumored that he recently retired to the innermost fastnesses of the new E. L. S. House when some of his former companions in arms hove in sight, and moreover he remained there until the aforementioned friends of former days had betaken themselves hence.

Among the visitors on the Hill last week-end were the members of the Board of Trustees. They dropped in to see if Prexy was getting along all O. K., and to see if he needed any help in running the college. Evidently they forgot that Cal was back from Europe this year.

Dear Carpe:

Just who is this apple named Lord Jeffery Amherst, who is suspected of having been present at the Guild Theater to hear Smut's Songsters warble? We'd think maybe it was Jim the Penman, travelling under a nom de plume if he weren't dead. On the other hand, or even both hands, we suspicions two other fellows and Lon Chaney's kid brother. Such is life on a flatboat.

However, whoever the guy is, we want Alexander Woollcott to look up his record and trace his movements. Who knows but maybe he's the bird that stole Hamilton's statue out of the Hall of Fame?

Yours truly and without an added wisecrack,
SAM SQUIRTLAND.

SEND IN YOUR VOTES

Send in your votes for the Queen of the May. Haist and Squires are ineligible because of previous wins. The men with the funny striped coats who chase freshmen in funny baby caps around are not electioneering for the job. Those stripes are service stripes. They are given for service in performing "certain constructive duties." ' (Big secret and has been for yars and yars). The freshmen wth the carts can have the privilege of "welcoming visiting teams" next year, too. Election is charged to be on the grounds of school spirit. The Vassar Daisy Chain has twenty-one members, and the B. P. O. E. many thousands.

LOCAL ITEM

Nelsonrox Dale was recently seen wandering over the terrain near Little Falls and Dolgeville. He is generally regarded as a dangerous character, so everyone made a special effort to keep out of earshot. Many succeeded.

FRESHMEN DEBATES HELD

Class of '32 Wins Over Utica; Loses At Rome

The freshman debating team concluded forensic activities for the year last Friday afternoon with a 3-0 victory over the representatives of Utica Free Academy in the Academy Auditorium. This was the second debate this year for the yearlings, who lost to Rome Free Academy on April 26th in Rome.

Upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That Armed Intervention by the United States in Latin-American Countries Should Cease," the freshmen easily annexed a unanimous decision. The team was composed of John J. Walsh, Douglas H. Batten, Samuel J. Holt and Robert G. Phelps, alternate. Principal E. S. Babcock of the Academy presided, and hte judges were Harold Hartness Alfred W. Cockerill and Harry F. Coupe.

Somewhat handicapped by the last minute illness of M. N. Bates, the Freshmen suffered a 3-0 defeat at the hands of Rome Free Academy, while upholding the negative side of the question, "Resolved, That Hydro-Electric Plants to Be Developed in the Future in New York State Shall Be Owned and Operated by the State." Raymond R. Borst, Jack W. Hummer and Herbert E. Corby, alternate, argued the question for Hamilton.

CIGARETTES

WHY CAMELS ARE THE BETTER CIGARETTE

Camels are made of the choicest tobaccos grown.
The Camel blend of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos has never been equaled.
Camels are mild and mellow.
They do not tire the taste.
They leave no cigaretty after-taste.
Camels have a delightful fragrance that is pleasing to everyone.

WELL DAD, I MADE IT!

THE TEAM, Junior Society, mid-term exam, or one of the hundred and one other things that go to make up college life . . . .

Why wait to write home about it? Tell them by telephone.

It will mean a lot more pleasure for them—and you too! And you'd be surprised at how little it costs if you take advantage of the reduced rates after 8:30 p. m.

Perhaps right now there's something you'd like to talk over with Mother or Dad. There's a telephone handy—and while you're at it why not tell the folks they can expect to hear from you one night a week by telephone from now on?
